MOVING FORWARD

God has been so good to us. We have seen so many of our prayers answered. Both, Dominique and I, have recovered from our surgeries. We have seen our support and moving costs continue to increase. Our calendar continues to fill up. Dominique's birth certificate has finally arrived, and we are now able to move forward with our visa process. Isaiah 60:22b says, "…I the LORD will hasten it in his time." So, we continue to move forward!

ARE THEY WORTH IT?

"For God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us." 2 Corinthians 4:6-7. Reading through my Bible the other day these verses weighed heavy on my heart, and raised the question "Am I worth God's light more than the Italians?"

Not sharing the gospel is simply hiding if from those in greatest need. We are nothing special for having a personal relationship with Jesus. Anything good we are is not of us. It comes from Jesus Christ. He is the treasure we hold in our earthen vessel. We were people who, also, were once blinded by Satan who can now see, because someone was bold enough to share what Jesus Christ had done for us. So, what's the difference between us and the Italians…nothing! They need what we once needed. Someone to step out of their comfort zone and be bold enough to share Jesus Christ with them.

So, are they worth it? Are they worth the sacrifices needed to send someone to tell them? Absolutely!
