Bible Studies

Through the course of our study on Ephesians we have had in-depth conversations about who we are in Christ, the role of the church and the saints within the church.

Family News

Thanksgiving provide great opportunities for our family to build relationships with those in our community. We made several pumpkin pies and took them to the stores and people around us whom we have been intentionally building relationships with. They were so grateful to be thought of during our American holiday.

Thanksgiving

Thanksgiving...an opportunity for outreach in Italy? Surprisingly, this American holiday is a great way to reach out to those we have been actively building relationships with.

Mirko, Maura, Diana Giulia, and Viktor approached us about being part of our Thanksgiving celebration. They knew this was a time to be spent with family and that we have no family here, so they decided to be that family for us. (Plus, it allowed them to be apart of the big meal they had only seen in movies.)

Not only did it allow us a time to give thanks for all God has done in our lives, but it allowed us to share those same things with them. Through dinner conversations, with this family, we have been able to share what we believe, how we differ from the Catholic church, and invite them to our church. You can clearly see God doing a work in their hearts.

God is an Active God

November marked the 3rd anniversary of the church in Florence. After the meal, kids games and face painting came the biggest blessing. A time for many to share their testimony of how their life has been changed and/or how they have been blessed by the ministry being done through our church. These life changes shared have only happened because our God is an active God!
